I'VE GOT A FEELING.....

Can you say "PLAYOFFS", Oh yeah baby! I've got a feeling and it's not from the Kielbasa and Iron City beer. It's from our beloved Black & Gold Steelers and it's about time we get to play some football in January, you've gotta love it BABY! 13-3 the best Steeler record since 1978 and we all know what happened in 1978.....that's right baby.....SUPER BOWL CHAMPIONS! What crazy psychotic Steeler fan would have thought that we would end up 13-3? Not me and I am frickin nuts. What a game against those stinkin Browns, you know what Cleveland?.....you still SUCK!..... but we love to hate you. The biggest surprise to me this year is our defense, a bunch of bad asses. After losing Joel Steed and Levon Kirkland I thought they would struggle. Can you say Kendrel Bell "ding dong", he rang nine quarter-backs as a rookie this kid is prime time. Our defense sacked Tim "Crotch" oh I'm sorry "Couch" four times he was left icing down his crotch after the beating we gave him. "Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala- runna- ova- ya- assa" looked like the Bus. He had 98 yards with one touchdown .....tough as steel. As you can't tell I am a little excited, I can't wait for this Sunday baby! I'm counting the minutes until I'm able to crack open that first Iron City Light and dance to that frickin Steeler polka song...yeah baby!! The Baltimore Ravens, it doesn't get any better than this, those trash squawkin' birds are going to get tarred and feathered by the best defense in the NFL. Some of you were worried about playing the Ravens but I wouldn't have it any other way, last years Super Bowl Champs bring em' on, it's a new year. Remember they will be playing at Heinz Field and the Steelers will be fired up, the last time we played them we banged them around like rag dolls, and even bad ass Hinds Ward knocked out one of their Linebackers. We'll see who's talking trash at the end of the game. Feel the steel baby it's gonna' hurt. I guarantee Elvis will be leaving the building as a loser if not in an ambulance. Let's give congrats to Kordell Stewart, Jerome Bettis, Alan Faneca, and Jason Gildon for making the Pro Bowl although there should have been 4 other Steelers that deserve to go. Wait until after the Super Bowl we'll show them who the Pro-Bowlers are.

FEATHERS WILL BE FLYIN' !

January.....a cold chill in the air and when snowflakes start falling and the snowbirds flock to Arizona and wreak havoc in our streets "The Bastards" just kidding their always getting a bad rap. Seriously though, it's when every game counts and there is no tomorrow only the strong survive and it's time for the Steelers to kick some ass! "Can you say specials?".....Harold's has em. Use your Steeler Fan Club card for your .10 cent Iron City beer or Bud/Bud Light Longnecks, then all during the game they will be on special for $2. Don't forget about our wonderful Pittsburgh menu and our $3 special on "RAVEN WINGS". We'll be eating the Ravens for lunch fresh from Jason Gildon, Joey Porter and Kendrel Bell from the last time they plucked those bastard Ravens. Budweiser will be here giving away 75 commemorative "Drive For Five" T-shirts. Created by two of our Steeler Fan Club members Jill Bilsky and Conrad, awesome job guys, make sure you stop by to see Dina for your gift. DJ Dex will also be here doing his best to get you hyped up. We will be giving away free Black & Gold pom-poms to the first 200 Steeler Fans wearing Black & Gold. Speaking of Black & Gold check out our $3 Black & Gold special.....$3 Black Haus and $3 Goldschlager.....plus the Goldschlager girls will be here giving away all kinds of cool stuff. WOW! Other than a Super Bowl win what more could anyone ask for! See yinz at kickoff

A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

I would like to give special thanks to everyone of you. THE GREATEST FANS IN THE WORLD! Just think about it for a minute.....would you ever believe that you could find a place that's 3000+ miles away from Pittsburgh, in the middle of the desert, in a bar called Harold's Corral where cowboy boots hang from the rafters, and live country music and the Steeler polka go hand in hand. Only in the small town of Cave Creek, Arizona that's where! There are over 600 loyal Harold's Steeler Fan Club Members and it keeps growing every year. Some of you have been to every Steeler game this year like Andy & Marcia. What's just as impressive is that all of you (well almost all of you) have the same passion for our sacred Black & Gold as I do. This has been the greatest year ever. We have danced, laughed and cheered together. I am so honored to be able to share my place and my enthusiasm for our beloved Steelers with all of you. I guarantee that you won't find better Fans or a Fan Club as awesome as ours anywhere in the world. Terrible towels waving Steeler Fans dancing to the "Steeler Polka" and toasting the Steelers with Iron City beer. Does it get any better than this? Harold's has become legendary with Steeler fans from all over. I can't tell you how many times someone has come up to me who is visiting for the first time and have said that they've heard about this crazy Steeler bar and they just had to see it for themselves. Keep waving those Terrible Towels and bring home three more victories this season! Thanks again to all of you.

One of the many crazy Steeler Fans,

Danny Piacquadio
